

TIPS

- 1. Bahnhof Südkreuz | A clock tower in a parking garage - the last relic of the old railway building from 1901 | Suadicanistraße, Exit Parkhaus Süd
- 2. Club der Mittelalterlichen | A club that joyfully celebrates the Middle Ages | Thursdays from 6 pm | Suadicanistr. 3
- 3. Hildegard-Knef-Platz | Western forecourt of Südkreuz station
- 4. Weingewölbe | A small winery in a building that once served as barracks | General-Pape-Straße 30
- 5. Karunasom | Pacifism in practice: a Buddhist center and meditation institute in a former casern | General-Pape-Straße 30
- 6. Spez. Aal- und Fischräucherei Eleonore Krohnen | This family business has been smoking and selling fish since 1903 | General-Pape-Straße 52
- 7. Schwerbelastungskörper | The load-testing structure weighs 12,650 tons and was built to measure the Berlin ground's carrying capacity for Albert Speer's planned buildings for Germania | General-Pape-Straße 60
- 8. Gedenkstätte Papestraße | In 2011 a memorial will be opened in memory of the over 2,000 detainees of the former SA prison | Werner-Voß-Damm 54a
- 9. Gartenstadt "Neu-Tempelhof" | Garden city for the middle classes | Manfred-von-Richtofen-Straße
- 10. Katholische Pfarrkirche St. Judas Thaddäus | A wonderful church built of pink decorative concrete and turquoise mosaics | Bäumeplan 23
- 11. NSG Schöneberger Südgelände | After a citizens' group's successful battle under natural preservation. The interplay between nature and decaying railroad relics is wonderfully unique | Prellerweg 35
- 12. Lokhalle | Today the former locomotive hall is a gallery and educational center for young people | Lokhalle Südgelände (next to the water tower)
- 13. Memorial for the fallen employees of the state railroad repair station | The contrast between the temple to Billy shelves and the memorial, almost devoured by the asphalt of the parking lot, is too bizarre not to visit | IKEA | Sachsenendamm 47

SÜDKREUZ

Where Speer planned a giant train station for a direct connection to Moscow is today gathering grounds for all those lovers of Swedish furniture. The nearby Südgelände unites nature and modern art amid the rusty tracks.

THE PROJECT

www.ringbahn.com takes a new look at the past and present of Berlin's Ringbahn, shedding light on technical, architectural, and everyday aspects. For those in the know, but especially for those just getting on board!

www.ringbahn.com a project of the

